

Remaining Slots for Review of Applications for Candidacy

CAPTE's Rules of Practice and Procedure (§7.5) state "(a) CAPTE makes Candidate for Accreditation decisions three times per year and (b) CAPTE will accept and review a maximum of ten (10) Applications for Candidacy during a given cycle. The acceptance of Applications for Candidacy will be based on the receipt date of the Developing Program Information Form. Forms received after the 10-program cap is reached will be subject to the next available review cycle and planned student admission must be delayed accordingly."
